SILVER AND LEAD.

THE SALTLAKE HERAL

WEATHER TODAY.

Forecast for Salt Lake. Cloudy and probably snow.

ESTABLISHED JUNE 6, 1870

SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH: TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 4, 1902

PRICE FIVE CENTS.

WARDEN WAS WARNED HIS WIFE WAS INFATUATED

Belief is Growing That Mrs. Soffel Had Accomplices Outside of the Jail, Wounded and Remorseful, the Woman Has Some Friends Who Say She Was Hypnotized-Her Statement.

the dead bandits, arrived at Soffel otherwise.'

the morgue for identification onducted as privately as pos-Rev. Father Sweeney, the o tendered spiritual advice to les while they were in the jail, will conduct the serv-

HE IGNORED THE WARNING. Warden Was Angry at Insinuations

About His Wife. Butier, Pa., Feb. 3.—Hovering be-reen life and death, suffering physical ony and poignant mental anguish, rs. Kate Soffel is a pitiable object, me of the more sympathetic are as the subject of an article in paper in which it was said she because of the publication as she pleased inside the jail. er is not passed, and on ac-this uncertainty in her con-thing is being done in the way

Its on lives, in addition to answering the charge of aiding prisoners to cape, she will be confronted by larges of furnishing the Biddles with s and aiding the felonious as-on the jail guards and the of-

Pittsburg attorney to engage his ices. Her father is said to be well to do, and as her parents prison board is satisfied Mrs. ad assistance within the prison, ore the Biddle incident is finally is probable there will be an tirely new force of attaches The county authorities do implicating Jennie Seebers likely any action will be taken

WHY SHE SET THEM FREE.

Some Believe It Was Pity, But she said: Others Say Hypnotism.

DITTSBURG, Pa., Feb. 3.-The re- | could scarcely have gained such comains of Edward and John Bid- plete control of a woman like Mrs.

urg & Western railroad sta- At the time of his trial Edward Bid-At the time of his trial Edward Biddle cast his spell over the widow of Detective Patrick Fitzgerald, whom the Biddles murdered in cold blood. She was made to believe, by some occult was made to believe, by some occult was made to believe, by some occult their incarceration was wrong and that they were innocent of the murder of the purple of the murder of the purple of the property of the was done. being crushed against the The morgue wagon was the bodies were quickly they were innocent of the murder of husband, although it was done while resisting arrest for the murder of Grocer Kahney.

Did Not Hear Prisoners.

The Biddles began the execution of their plans for escape about 4 o'clock in the morning and at 4:30 o'clock they were free men. From that time on until 6 o'clock the prisoners, especially the females, kept up a constant din, but were not heard outside the prison walls. The fail break was first known when the pairs break was first known when the pairs break was not a count of when the patrol wagon and a squad of officers came after some prisoners.

When it was definitely settled that Warden Soffel's wife had been instru-warden Soffel's wife had been instru-mental in the escape of the prisoners, another man was put in Soffel's place temporarily, although Soffel has not re-signed and does not intend to do so until an investigation is held. It is believed he will be exonerated. In an hour or so after he knew of the escape of the Biddles, Warden Sof-fel was convinced that his wife held.

the escape of the Biddles, warden sor-fel was convinced that his wife had, furnished them with the saws which they used to get out of their cells and the revolvers which they had ready to kill an one that stood in the way of the completion of their escape.

Warden Accused Wife.

Under the crushing grief of this disheroic manner. He at once made public the humiliating fact that he believed his wife to be responsible for the escape. Mrs. Soffel had retired at the escape. Mrs. Soffel had retired at 9 o'clock, telling her husband she was going to visit a sister at McDonald in the morning and desired to get up that of her husband, so that he had no means of knot ing what time she had left the house when he discovered that she was absent. As soon as he learned some of the details of the escape he some of the details of the escape he telephoned to McDonald and ascertained that she had not been there. Throughout an exciting day, investigation after investigation being made into the condition of affairs at the jail by the county officials, Warden Soffel's great mental suffering was visible to by the county officials, warden Soffer's great mental suffering was visible to scores of persons who saw him, but he bore up manfully and attended to all the duties which the trying occasion imposed upon him.

Tells How She Was Forced to Fly the children were at play in the front

The county authorities do that Ed Biddle's dying mplicating Jennie Seebers and it she may say concerning the escape and the fate of Mrs. Soffel and anything the scene. The 5-year-old boy has always possible with the fate of Mrs. Soffel and anything the scene. she may say concerning the escape and subsequent capture of the trio. Mrs. Soffel is lying in the Butler hospital and will recover. She made a statement tonight to some newspaper men in the presence of the Prickler in which presence of Dr. Bricker, in which 'I had not intended going with the Others Say Hypnotism.

Biddle boys on the night of their escape, but Ed's entreaties won me over."

Soffel first became interested in She told of how she remained in the underers by believing that the library on Thursday awaiting the signature of their execution could be awful to them if they had less awful to them if they had represented in the library on Thursday awaiting the signature of the library of the library of the library on Thursday awaiting the signature of the library of the lib es, awful to them if they had a solutions of religion. Her first it is asserted, was to convert in the library, she said, she was almost paralyzed when the two brothers came this this state. another charitable supposition crashing through the door. In their exceptertained is that Edward citement they had lost the key to this door and had to break it down.

door and had to break it down.

Wanted Her to Go.

"Ed asked not ocome with them."

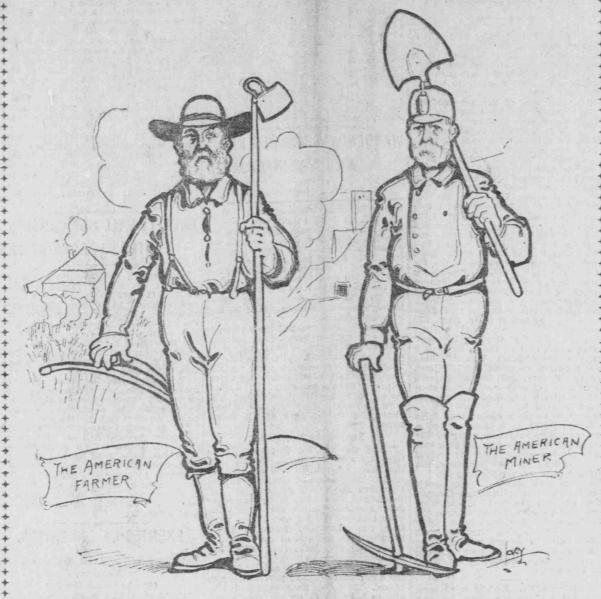

Come with us, he said to me. I resisted, and told them to go. They told me they had not an instant to lose, and fight ediscovered. I tried to persuade them to go it hen I felt myself giving way which she recently passed, hers contend she was hypno eve Edward Biddle is a hypno door and had to break it down.

Wanted Her to Go.

"Ed asked not ocome with them."

Come with us, he said to me. I resisted, and told them to go. They told me they had not an instant to lose, and if the officers were to get away I would be discovered. I tried to persuade them to go; then I felt myself giving way to Ed's persuasions and yielded. We all dashed out on Ross street. We then passed along the court alley. Ed then passed along the court alley. Ed and Jack went along Grant street, and, was at the jail during the of the prison board. "He (Continued on Page 2)

THE ADVANCE GUARDS OF CIVILIZATION.

They won the west--Why not the Philippines.

BURNS BABY BROTHER TO DISSOLVE THIRD PARTY

Fiendish Act of a Five-year-old Boy Causes Death.

San Jose, Cal., Feb. 3 .- The 5-yearold son of August Nelson of Evergreen, with an inordinate desire to play with fire, made a bonfire of his little 14months'-old brother vesterday.

The burning child was only discovnting, she hopes to receive aid WOMAN MAKES A STATEMENT. in terrible agony four hours.

Hold Up West's Appointment.

Hold Up West's Appointment,

(Special to The Herald.)

Washington, Feb. 3.—Senators Dubois and Heitfeln have requested the public lands committee to withhold action upon the nomination of John B. West as register of Lewiston land office until the protests to be filed against him by the citizens of Idaho are received. West was appointed on the recommendation of Senator Shoup and Committeeman Standrod. The Idaho senators state that they have no personal interest in the case and ask delay by request.

Judge Flenner's Address.

Idaho Populists Depose Chairman Andrews and Order a Referendum to Decide Whether on Not the Entire Organization day and deposed Chairman Andrews, estly requested on March 15, 1902, to deered by the mother when it was a mass electing W. A. Sample of Blackfoot to termine whether or not our party shall lution. Part of it is as follows:

"In view of the fact that within the past eight years our party has dwindled from 12,000 voters in this state to the distance with the detailed a feet of your own conscience and manhood."

The meeting voted down a resolution to disband the People's party and join the Democracy. Another resolution Rollse, IDA., Feb. 3.—What is known voters: therefore, it is the sense of tary Personalities Exchanged. B as the Heltfeld wing of the Populist state committee met here toof flames and the clothing was nearly consumed. The whole body of the Before the meeting Chairman An-WOMAN MAKES A STATEMENT.

Tells How She Was Forced to Fly With the Men.

Butler, Pa., Feb. 3.—The only matternow of anything like absorbing internow of the children and the same in the coming election. It was to be made to W. A. Samble and the same in the coming election. Reports on the seal to W. A. Samble and the same in the coming election. It was to be children on the same in the coming of the scale was fixed afternow of the chairman Antonical internotice in the chairman Antonical internot still others claiming to be members shall align themselves in case our orand who were at the Heitfeld meeting ganization is dissolved, with what parhad been removed by Andrews for affiliating with the Democratic party.

The Heitfeld faction adopted a resonance with the dictates dled from 12,000 voters in this state to less than 5,000, owing to fusion, barter and political sale, betrayal and deception, and in view of the fact that as a the Democratic party was voted down, political party we cannot either regain as the committee did not desire to apour lost strength or revivify a dying pear arbitrary.

To Accommodate Stockmen.

Washington, Feb. 3.—Oliver Clapp of Harpster, Ida., has been allowed a pension of $30 monthly.

Palermo, Sicily, Feb. 3.—The United States cruisers Chicago and Albany, attached to the European station, arrived here today.

JOBS FOR UTAH MEN

Senator Kearns Asks for Them-Manti Postmaster to Be Reappointed.

(Special to The Herald.) appointment of A. B. Hayes to the Alaskan judgeship in the event of the resignation or dismissal of Judge Noyes. A delegation from the Pacific coast is here advocating immediate dismissal of Noyes, and it is thought early action will be taken by the president.

Senator Kearns also presented the claim of Utah for the position of assistiant postmaster general should there be a vacancy under the new postmaster genaral.

Speaking of this matter later, Senator Kearns said: "I have no person definitely in mind for either one of these places, but I want to place the claim of Utah on file early so that the state will be recognized should there be a vacancy. Both the president and the new postmaster general are friendly to Utah and are disposed to give us recognition.
"A western man is needed in the post-office department as one of the assistants to the postmaster general, and Utah has plenty of good Republicans qualified for the position. If the vacancy occurs, we are not going to lose it through not asking for it." Speaking of this matter later. Senator

Concessions for Old Settlers.

Washington, Feb. 3.—Senator Dubois, at the request of settlers on the Fort Hall reservation, has taken the matter up with the Indian office as to their preference rights for land when the reservation is opened for settlement. The Indian office holds that early settlers who have been on the reservation ten or twenty years have no rights over other citizens. Dubois has also presented the matter to the general land office and hopes to secure concessions for these settlers.

How the Millionaire Died.

New York. Feb. 3.—The trial of Albert T. Patrick for the murder of W. M. Rice, the millionaire, today reached the stage where the exact cause of his death was called in question before the court. The testimony opened with the inquiry: Was Mr. Rice chloroformed to death, as the presocution claims, or did he die of heart disease, as the defense maintains? These two questions were what the counsel contended over, between Recorder Goff and the jury.

GOMPERS RESENTS TERM USED BY WU TING FANG

Protests Against Being Called an Agitator and Denounces Minister's Arguments.

Spirited Debates About the Philippines-Twenty Millions Carried by the Expanded Deficiency Bill.

TASHINGTON, Feb. 3.-The house | in Manila. He declared that it was not clusion, as provided in the Mitchell-Kahn bill. Mr. Powderly stated that the hardships encountered by the class | Referring to the Republican support of Chinese exempt from exclusion at the detention stations were insignifi-Mr. Carmack sald:

laborer, he said, who sought to gain admission by assuming to be in the south, and yet you are engaged in the south, and yet you are engaged lynching 19,000,000 people who recently were your allies and your brothers. sumed 2 cents a day impoverished American labor and reduced the standards of living. To the argument that the pestident of the trinical States had properly characterized Aguinaldo and his associates as bloodards of living. To the argument that had been advanced that American workingmen would have to meet Euro-pean and Chinese standards of cheap living, Mr. Gompers answered that if long hours and low wages meant in-dustrial superiority, then China would nave been at the head of the indus-rial nations of the world. In the course of his remarks, Mr.

foreign diplomat that I am an agitator or a labor agitator, or that the labor-

I deny the right of the representa-e of a foreign government adticularly when such reference is of a derogatory character. The Chinese minister is treated in this country has no right to make insinuations upon American citizens. Upon behalf of the laboring men of this country, whom I represent as the president of the American Federation of Labor, I re-peat that I resent these remarks on

SENATORS IN VERBAL DUELS.

Washington, Feb. 3.—Another spirit-d debate with the Philippine tariff bil as the text was precipitated in the senate today as the result of some state-ments made by Mr. Carmack (Dem., his former colleagues in the house of representatives, Mr. Beveridge of Indiana challenged some of his statements. The debate which ensued was very political phase which proved particularly interesting to the auditors, who crowded the floor as well as the galiff it had enacted.

judges was under discussion for an and ex-Senator Edmunds, all of whom hour. In the course of debate the case had not been in sympathy with the Drawing Salary in Jail. Taking advantage of the latitude of people as final.

gebate offered by the senate rules, Mr. Tillman directed attention to an arti-tinues to graw salary. Mr. Tillman made running comments would tended that the president had ample power to remove a territorial judge. He president that the president had ample peace and want it was not done while I was the president that the president had ample peace and want it was not done while I was the president that the president had ample peace and want it was not done while I was not done while I was the president had ample power to remove a territorial judge. He provide the president had ample peace and want it was not done while I was not done while I was the president had a president h was laid before the senate, and Mr. peace?" was laid before the senate, and Mr. Carmack of Tennessee, a member of the Philippine committee, delivered a speech in opposition to the pending measure. He contended that congress was not prepared to deal understandingly with the Philippine situation in any of its phases, because it was not familiar with the facts. The bill, he said, had been framed by the Philippine commission an autografic poly. "I know that there are plenty of of-familiar with the facts. The bill, he said, had been framed by the Philippine commission, an autocratic body, 10,000 miles away, and not a change had been made in it by congress.

"This bill," said Mr. Carmack, is framed on the theory that the Philippine islands are a deadly menace to our own trade and that the less we trade with those islands and the less we have to do with them the better it will be for us. The only trade that will flourish under such conditions is that of the exploiters, and it is proposed to turn the islands over to them. It is for the benefit of the carpet-baggers Bell, General Wheaton and others?" sharply inquired Mr. Beveridge.

Mr. Tillman. "I have not seen him."

"Then why do you drag in General Bell, General Wheaton and others?" sharply inquired Mr. Beveridge.

Mr. Tillman. "I have not seen him."

"Then why do you drag in General Bell, General Wheaton and others?" sharply inquired Mr. Beveridge.

Mr. Tillman. "The number of the carpet-baggers and all is proposed to turn the islands over to them. It is for the benefit of the carpet-baggers." turn the islands over to them. It is for the benefit of the carpet-baggers and not for the benefit of the American people that a war of criminal aggression is being waged in the Philippine islands.

"We of the minority, cannot support this bill or the policy of which it is a part."

He next discussed briefly the subject of the censorship of press dispatches

Mr. Tillman: "I will drag into this discussion an Associated Press representative from Manila."

Mr. Beveridge: "Now it is an Associated Press man."

Mr. Tillman: "T will drag into this discussion an Associated Press representative from Manila."

Mr. Beveridge: "Now it is an Associated Press man."

Mr. Tillman: "T will drag into this discussion an Associated Press representative from Manila."

Mr. Beveridge: "Now it is an Associated Press representative from Manila."

Mr. Tillman: "T will drag into this discussion an Associated Press representative from Manila."

Mr. Beveridge: "Now it is an Associated Press representative from Manila."

Mr. Beveridge: "Now it is an Associated Press representative from Manila."

Mr. Beveridge: "Now it is an Associated Press representative from Manila."

Mr. Beveridge: "Now it is an Associated Press representative from Manila."

Mr. Beveridge: "Now it is an Associated Press representative from Manila."

Mr. Beveridge: "Now it is an Associated Press representative from Manila."

Mr. Beveridge: "Now it is an Associated Press man."

Mr. Beveridge: "Now it is an Associated Press man."

Mr. Beveridge: "Now it is an Associated Press man."

Mr. Beveridge: "Now it is an Associated Press man."

Mr. Beveridge: "Now it is an Associated Press man."

Mr. Beveridge: "Now it is an Associated Press man."

Mr. Beveridge: "Now it is an Associated Press man."

Mr. Beveridge: "Now it is an Associated Press man."

Mr. Beveridge: "Now it is an Associated Press man."

Mr. Beveridge: "Now it is an Associated Press man."

Mr. Beveridge: "Now it is an Associated Press man."

Mr. Beveridge: "Now it is an Associated Press man."

Mr. Beveridge: "Now it

committee on foreign affairs to- a censorship for military purposes, but day heard Immigration Commis- had been "established by, for and in sioner Powderly and President Gom- the interest of the Republican party."

pers of the American Federation of Important information had been sup-Labor in favor of strick Chinese ex-

"You lift your hands in hely horror at the lynching of a colored man in the charge against Admiral Dewey would be investigated.

Cites Anderson's Promises

"From the beginning," said Mr. Car-mack, "we know that Aguinaldo was Anderson had assured Aguinaldo that the American people never had estab-in the honor of the American people "These facts." he said, "constitu binding obligation upon us to give their independence."

American flag wherever it waved as an emblem of force and despotism charged that the United States been holding a false, fraudulent and delusive hope to the Filipinos, and that we were killing these people for ing up the church of God out of hu lowing out the policy of conquest for mulated by the majority in power the United States was pressing itself into all the bickerings and quarrels of the world. Under such a policy no peace

The debate which ensued was very lariff bill the same care which had lively for a few minutes, taking on a been given the Philippine tariff scale refres.

The measure providing for an increase in the salaries of United States dent Cleveland, ex-President Harrison of Judge Arthur H. Noyes of the district court of Alaska was drawn upon to show why some judges should not be given the increase.

had not been in sympathy with the Philippine policy of the administration, declined to follow the Democratic party was because that party would not accept the decision of the supremental the party of the American Criticises the Minority.

Tillman directed attention to an article in the Washington Post, published today, relative to the case of Judge Arthur H. Noyes of the district court of Alaska, who was fined $1,000 recently by the circuit court at San Francisco, and of associates of Judge Noyes, who were involved with him.

Mr. Tillman read the article, which indicated that Judge Noyes and his associates are drawing large salaries from the United States while the case against them is pending in the courts. One of the men, according to the article, who is serving his sentence, continues to Graw salary.

Mr. Tillman read the case of Judge Noyes, who were involved with him.

Another reason, why the "moderate, thoughtful and constructive people of the county" had not followed the Democratic party in its opposition to the proper control of the Philippines and in other matters of national policy, was that they feared that party would "sow the dragon's teeth from which would spring a harvest of anarchy."

Another reason, why the "moderate, thoughtful and constructive people of the county" had not followed the Democratic party in its opposition to the proper control of the Philippines and in other matters of national policy, was that they feared that party would "sow the dragon's teeth from which would spring a harvest of anarchy."

Another reason, why the "moderate, thoughtful and constructive people of the county" had not followed the Democratic party in its opposition to the proper control of the Philippines and in other matters of national policy, was that they feared that party would "sow the dragon's teeth from which would spring a harvest of anarchy."

Another reason, he sald, was that that party was sounding a note of retreat and "never in the history of the country had the American people retreated from any proposition to the proper control to the He asserted that the reasons why

Mr. Tillman made running comments upon the statements in the article, directing all his sarcasm. ridicule and invective against Judge Noyes, finally inquiring:

"By the way, whose business is it remays this man?"

Would.

As he was proceeding to discuss some of the conditions in the Philippine islands, Mr. Tillman of South Carolina interrupted with the inquiry:

"Will the senator be explicit and give us the benefit of his personal observation or any of the information here."

to remove this man?"

Mr. Foraker of Ohio believed it might require impeachment proceedings to remove Judge Noyes, but Mr. Teller contended that the president had ample power to remove a tarritorial index. He

Noyes had been a "crying shame," and asserted that "a recital of his outrages would startle the American people."

Commission an Autocratic Body.

At 2 o'clock the Philippine tariff bill was laid before the senate and Mr. peace?"

Tillman Answers Questions,

"I will ask the senator," continued Beveridge, "whether, when he is making war, he would not make war so terrible that the enemy would want peace?"

